A PLAN TO PROLONG LIFE.-M. Robin, an eminent French chemist, in a memoir recently presented to the French Academy, expresses a belief that human life may be greatly prolonged, and enters in-to an argument to show that his opinion is based upon sound reasoning. He gives the result of his personal observations on the subject, and proposes to demonstrate the trathfulness of his position by actual experiments upon animals whose lives are of short duration. His argument is, that the mineral matter, which constitutes an ingredient in most of our food, after the combination, is in 'our system to incrust and stiffen the different parts of the body and to render imperfect many of the vital processes. He compares human beings to furnaces which are always kindled; life exists only in combustion, but the combustion which occurs in our bodies, like that which takes place in our chimneys, leaves a detritus or residum which is fatal to life. To remove this, he would administer lactic acid with ordinary food. This acid is known to possess the power of removing or dissolving the incrustations which form on the arteries, cartilages and valves of the heart. As buttermilk abounds in this acid, and is, moreover, an agreeable kind of food, its habitual use, it is urged, will free the system from these causes, which inevitably cause death between the seventy-fifth and one hundredth year.

COMMODORE FARRAGUT .- Our great naval hero, David Glascoe Farragut, was born in the year 1801, a short distance from Knoxville, in East Tennessee, and has always displayed the earnest patriotism characteristic of the gallant people in that section of the Union. He entered the navy as a midshipman when only eleven years of Missouri will not extend the right of suffrage to free blacks. The organs of the Union party in St. Louis are mostly opposed to any discussion of this subject by the State Convention. The public mind there is not yet prepared for so great a stride from slavery.

WITHIN six months the United . States Mint has produced 18,000,-000 of the new cents. During November alone, the mint coined 5,600,000 cents, and 3,145,000 two-cent pieces. Cents are not nearly so much used as they were.

THE Philadelphia police are still active in searching for property stolen from the Navy Yard. The materials recovered so far are valned at about $50,000. It is supposed that this is not more than one-third of the amount stolen.

Human Sacrifice.

Travelers, who have penetrated the wilds of Africa. over which ignorance and superstition have bung their curse since creation, shock their readers with accounts of native Kings, who sacrifice scores and bundreds of human victims to appeare the wrath of the their Fetich Gods. And priestly writers, who carried the crucifix before the band of cavaliers, whom Cortez led to the conquest of Mexico, tell us the use of those immense pyramidal altars, which still stand to mark the past ages of semi-civilization, whereon men were slain in offering to the bloody Divinities which were subjects of worship by Aztec superstition.

Indeed, the fearful rite of human sacrifice seems to be a crowning characteristic of all barbaris religions. When the dim idea of a Supreme or Superior Being first dawns upon minds of men by nature cruel, their crude imaginations invest bim with attributes peculiarly their own, and they very naturally attempt to propitiate his favor by such offerings as would be acceptable to them-

It is a truth, universal in its application and which all history affirms, that the more enlightened men become the more will their feelings revolt at such enormities, and the further they return on the road to barbarism the better will their minds be prepared to accept the most frightful attributes of savage superstition.

But would it seem credible, that the leaders of any denomination, claiming to be Christian, would dare publicly to announce a doctrine so utterly abhorrent to humanity as that of human sacrifice for the remission of sins? And yet why not? It is only another step beyond polygamy; they both belong together and, when the obscene passion stalks in upon the stage, the bloody spectre may be expected shortly to ap-

Will the world, will the Mormons themselves believe that these monstrous conceptions are, both alike, constituent parts of that faith, the professed prophet and exponent of which is Brigham Young Lest any should doubt and seek, per chance, to deny a fact of such frightful with this article, (see te-morrow's issue. -En.) the ineffaceable record of his own words, and, though doubtless shorn of That is my opinion. some superfluous horrors as they appear in the print, from which we copy them. they yet stand, indellible in their infamy, the evidence of dangerous insanity or damnatory proof of premeditated

We are fully prepared to see many good Latter Day Saints perfectly horrified and, of course, scandalized by this revelation—were they not, they must be more or less than men, and such an ex-bibition will only demonstrate their humanity. Perhaps, some may attempt to explain away the enormity, for certainly no sane man, not possessed of a demon, could for one moment contemplate such a spectacle in its dark reality. without an instinctive shudder. But. there stande the record and we want the world to understand the truth, that Mormonism as taught by Brigham Young, includes not only polygamy but the rite of human sacrifice; that both have been openly advocated by him and other Church leaders, and that while the former it stil practiced in defance of law, the latter has never been renounced as a prerogative to be assumed when circumstances make it convenient or necessary. What those circumstances are we shall

To such hopeless imbeciles we do not address ourselves But to those, who yet are not afraid to exercise their manhood, we commend the foregoing and ask them to consider whether they feel prepared to assume the responsibility of such deep-dyed ini-quity, for the inevitable verdict of man-kind will surely not hold guiltless any who do not disown the dark impeach-Want of space forbids our following the subject further, at present, but we intend to return to it again and point out the results, which followed these teachings, in events that form a dark portion of the unwritten history of Utah

WE publish to-day the following extracts from the Discourse of Jedediah M. Grant, March 12th, 1854, page 9, Judge Cradlebaugh's speech :

Then what ought this meek people who keep the commandments of God do unto them? "Why," says one, "they ought to pray to the Lord to kill them." I want to know if you would wish the Lord to come down and do all your dirty work? Many of the Latter Day Saints will pray, and petition, and sup-plicate the Lord to do a thousand things they themselves would be ashamed to

When a man prays for a thing, he ought to be willing to perform it himself. But if the Latter Day Saints should port to death the covenant breakers, it would try the faith of the "very meek, just, and pious" ones among them. and it would cause a great deal of whining in Israel. Then there was another odd com mandment. The Lord God commanded them not to pity the person whom they killed, but to execute the law of God upon persons worthy of death. This should be done by the entire congregation, shoreing no pity. I have thought there would have to be quite a revolu-tion among the Mormons, before such a commandment could be obeyed completely by them. The Mormons have a great deal of eympathy. For instance, if they can get a man before the tribunal administering the law of the land, and succeed in getting a rope around his neck, and having him hung up like a dead dog. it is all right. But if the Church and Kingdom of God should step forth and execute the law of God, O. what a burst of Mormon sympathy it would cause. I wish we were in a situ-ation avorable to our doing that which is justifiable before God. without any contaminating influence of Gentile amalgamation, laws, and traditions, that the People of God might lay the axe to the root of the tree, and every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit might be hewa down.

> You talk of the doings of different Covernments-the United States, if you please. What do they do with trai ors? What mode do they adopt to punish traitors? Do traitors to that Govern-ment forfeit their lives? Examine, also, the doings of other earthly governments on this point, and you find the same practice universal. I am not aware that there are any exceptions. But people will look into books of theology, and laugh, saying: I have got them on a hook now; they can cut them off, and I will put eight or ten spirits worse than they are into their tabernacles, and send them back to mob them.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 20th. The weather is bitter cold at the front and there is danger that the James river will close by the ice.
Roanoke Island, Jan. 26th.

We learn that a large number of Union prisoners have been brought from Georgia to Galesburg, N. C. to prevent their capture by Sherman. It is said the rebels are becoming more inhuman in the treatment of our men, and starvation is on the increase, and deaths amounting to fifty daily.

New York, Jan 31st.

The World's special says, notwith-standing the assertions of the Richmond papers to the contrary, Gen. Singleton did not leave that city until Saturday last, and arrived here to-day; this we know. He was in consultation with the President, and he mainly confirms Blair's story that the rebel leaders are not at present prepared to negotiate on the basis of submission to the Union.

A rumor was in circulation last night in and about the Evening Exchange Zoom that rebel Peace Commissioners were on the way to Washington.

Cairo, Jan. 30th.
The Magnolia from Orleans the 24th All is quiet along the river. A steamer had arrived at Orleans from Mobile Bay bringing the rumor of the evacuation of Mobile. The report was receiv ed from the flag ship on the 20th.

A Natchez letter of the 23d, to the New Orleans Delta, has the following news from the Trans-Mississippi Dep't

The enemy are fortifying Grand Ecore and have an entire Division stationed there. One divison of rebel cavalry has been sent to Texas lately with or ders to be dismounted, for infantry ser vice. Kirby Smith's headquarters are still at Shreveport, but there is no considerable body of troops garrisoned there. The main body of Price's old army is reported at Fulton, on the Up per Red River near the border of the Indian country, suffering all the horrors of cold and nakedness, having come back from the recent campaign very poorly supplied with the necessities which they anticipated getting. Logan's and Parson's brigades are stationed at Camden, Ark. They compose all the troops of Price's army that have returned to the place from where the Missouri expedition originally set out. Desertions are very frequent from their demoralized forces

The Memphis Bulletin says, the steamers Chipewa and Annie Jacobs, two of the fleet which went up the Arkansas river to fort Smith, were captured and burned at White Oak Shoal, and the two others were damaged, but escaped.

Louisville, Jan. 30th. Capt. Bridgewater, with 70 or 80 Federals had a fight with a detachment of the fourth Missouri rebel cavalry, four miles from Harrodsburg, yesterday, and killed four or five rebels. Several prisoners were taken.

On Saturday, Gen. Mundy's guerril la band dashed into Bloomfield and surprised a party of discharged soldiers. fourteen thereof and killed them on the spot. The guerrillas alleged in justification that the soldiers had executed a guerrilla named Dudley a few days before.

Philadelphia, Jan. 31st. special to the Evening Telegraph at Washington says: It is known in the best informed circles that commissioners from Jeff Davis, consisting of Vice President Stevens, R. M. T. Hunter and Gen. W. Smith, have arrived at Annapolis with full power to arrange a settle ment of our difficulties. It is believed from the understanding between Blair and Davis that the terms will be entirely satisfactory to the adminstration and Congress, and will chiefly consist of an amnesty to all offenders, and the withdrawal of the confiscation proclamation. Baltimore, Jan. 31st.

The American, this atternoon, publishes the following dispatch: Up to noon to-day we have no official confirmation of the rumor though the asser-tion varied this morning by an equally positive announcement that the peace commissioners consisting of Stephens Hunter and Campbell arrived at City Point, and were expected to reach An-napolis to-day. They are not spoken of as commissioners representing the rebel government, but as citizens, represent ing the people. on their way to Washington to confer with Lincoln on the subject of peace, precisely in the same capacity that Hair visited Richmond.

Washington, Jan. 31st.
Nothing con be obtained confirming the report that rebel peace commissioners arrived at City Point en route to

New York, Jan. 31st.

The Times' Paris letter says : The Secessionists papers are trying to create irritation over the Mexican resolutions of Winter Davis. The late success of the Federal arms have modified their tone, and all show that they desire Seward to remain in office to carry out his policy of non-intervention and concilli-

The Times' special says: The Ways and Means Committee have received the report of the sub Committee on the Tax .They have not materially altered the schedule of the old bill, simply per-fecting it with a view to its proper ad-ministration. In regard to the tax on crude and manufactured petroleum, they have not changed the latter, and only imposed a very slight tax on the crude. New York, Jan. 31st.

By steamer from Havana we have dates of the 20th, and advices from Salvador of the 19th, which report the re election of Senor Duen as President. The government had set at liberty John Bradshaw and Thomas Reynolds, arrested on their way to take, in connection with others, possession of one of the California steamers. The tribunal declared they had no right to inflict punishment.

The Port Royal New South of the 23d contains an account of the occupation of Salkatchee, by our troops. It was thought the rebels would make a stand

A part of Porter's fleet had joined Dalilgreen in Charleston barbor. New York. Jan. 30th.

The Times' Savannah correspondent of the 19th says: The last of Sherman's army leaves Savannah to-morrow. The 1st and 3rd divisions of the 20th corps were at Hardeeville, S. C., when last heard from.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says: The Navy Department has receive ed confirmation of the intelligence that telegraph wires were discovered, after the explosion of Fort Fisher, as leading across Cape Fear river and about two miles into the rebel lines, and has but little doubt that the magazine was purposely exploded by the rebels.

All peace negotiations with Richmond are now very thoroughly exploded, though negotiations are expected from other quarters. perhaps by a proclamation of the Governors of Georgia and

North Carolina.

It is stated that it was a part of the object of Stanton's visit to Savannah to advise with Sherman that if the rebels should propose terms of peace, he should hold himself in readiness on behalf of his government to accept.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 27th. Advices from North Carolina state that the Weldon and Gaston bridges have been carried away by the heavy freshet. Washington, Jan. 30th. In the House, Ross offered the follow ing:

Resolved. That the thanks of Congress and the country are due to President Lincoln for removing Gen. Butler from military command. Tabled, 97 to 43

The House passed the resolution, that Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida. Alabama, Mississippi. Louisiana and Tennessee, are not entitled to representatives in the Electoral College, therefore no such votes can be received or counted, for President or Vice President.

Professor Henry states that the partial burning of the Smithsonian building will not interrupt the regular active operations of the Institute.

Cairo, Jan. 29th. The guerrillas which attacked our pickets, back of Memphis, on Thursday. were driven off with the loss of their leader and several others.

By the Peruvian, from Liverpool the 19th, Londonderry the 21st : Captain Corbett, who commanded the Sea King, alias Shenandoah, has been committed for trial on the charge of violating the foreign enlistment Act.

It is asserted that the Emperor has nominated Prince Napoleon as Regent of the French Empire, in the event of his death.

The steamer Columbia, from Liverpool for the West Indies, was sunk off Brest; 31 lives were lost, and only three saved.

Schofield and Bright had been addressing their constituents at Birming-The former expressed regret at the intention of Americans to terminate the Reciprocity Treaty and place gungoats on the lakes. With regard to non-

the North to bring the question to a most satisfactory solution.

The Liverpool Post says: Extensive orders for army clothing for the rebels has been executed in Liverpool. Two hundred thousand uniforms were made for the rebel artillery.

The Vienna Presse asserts that the relations between Austria and Prussia continue to be excellent; but nevertheless.
Austria is determined to withdraw from the alliance rather than permit Prussia to annex the Dutchies to Italy.

It is rumored that Russia and the Pope have quarrelled over the encyclical let.

M. Desartiges has communicated Antonella the resolutions adopted by the French Government against the encyclical letter, and a complete rupture had occurred between Cardinal Dandria and the Pope.

The Cardinal was summoned to Rom to answer for rebellious language, usder the penalty of being deprived of the emoluments of his rank, and ft is stated that the Cardinal had refused to leave Naples.

Paraguay had declared war against Brazil, and a decree was issued announ-cing a rupture of the treaty.

The London Times refers to the rumors that the rebels contemplate emancipation as a means of receiving European recognition, and points out the utility of such a step. As to the idea of accepting the Protectorate of any Government in Europe rather than to submit to the North, the Times regards the idea as visionary, and thinks no En-ropean power is likely to accept any such improbable offer.

The loss of the new blockade run ner. Lelia, off Liverpool, was most disastrons. Only twelve seamen were saved out of sixty persons aboard. The life-boat which went to the rescue was also lost with seven of its crew.

The British war ship Bombay was burned off Montevideo, and ninety-five of her crew are supposed to be lost.

The Pope's encyclical letter is the leading theme of discussion in France. and the Perfect had been ordered to report its effect. The Governto report its effect. The Government, it was said. contemplated a seffous step in the matter.

It was rumored that there had been a difficulty beteen the French and English military authorities at Aden.

Cardinal Wiseman has had a serious relapse of his illness.

New York, Jan. 30th.

The World's special mentions the beginning of a new campaign, which will be brief but grand, and says, the ultimate object of their attention will create for them more prestage and glory than if it captured one hundred ordina ry cities. Every available soldier in Sherman's army has left Savannah. Bu-fort and Port Royal. Their destination is still a mystery to the enemy. who continue to guess, no matter where they may now be treading, but they will be eventually seen in the vicinity of Charleston. Sherman has not given the print of his programme, and his troops evinced no curiosity in the matter. De serters from Hardee's army report that the enemy depend almost solely on the resistance to be made beyond the city to save it from capture.

New York, Jan. 31st. In the rebel House, last Thursday, there was an interesting debate on the bill to put slaves into the army. During the debate Davis was severely denounced by the members. Turner of North Carolina said he looked upon the bill as a project to arm slaves. dent declared himself in favor of it. When he put them in the army as teamsters and cooks he can make them drill or perform any other duty. He would be willing to surrender the slaves for independence. The only objection he had to making soldiers of slaves was that they would not fight on our side. They would prove enemies and the best allies to accomplish our overthrow and destruction. Turner said the country has been too long and too often deluded and deceived by the President's plans sters and cooks he can make t and deceived by the President's plans and projects, and said none of his pro-phecies had been realized, and none of his projects or plans had proved suc-cessful, yet the President proposes new and dangerous schemes with the unabated confidence of his own judgement. He must not look for unlimited support either from Congress or the country, in what he proposes, a wild, mad scheme, in arming the slaves, and the country was beginning to learn that all abolitionintervention he said, he was not prepared to join in a policy which would overlook the injuries which one nation own President had proposed abolition Mr. Baxter, M. New York Jan. 31st. The Heralds correspondent near Pet ersburg the 28th says, the recent Rebel Ram movement on the James was deeper in design than supposed. The Rams were to move down the river just as they did and destroy our Pontoons. Signal rockets were to be sent up by which means intelligence was to be conveyed to Lee that the pontoon part of the business had been accomplished. After destroying the Pontoons, the Rams were to prevent reinforcements from being sent from the south to the north side. Simultanously with the above was to commence a dashing attack on Ord's lines on the north side of the James.
